Angelus Theatre

The Angelus Theatre in Spanish Fork is a historic gathering place where the community comes together for live music, plays, and cultural events. Originally built in 1912, it has been beautifully restored to host concerts, performances, and community activities for all ages. Whether you're looking for great entertainment or a unique local experience, the Angelus Theatre is the heart of the arts in Spanish Fork.

Olde Main Studios

Olde Main Studios is located in Springville Utah, also known as Art City. We are aiming to contribute to that legacy and do our part to further the arts.

Our primary focus is on artist and musician development by providing teachers, classes, programs, and facilities to help you develop your talents, skills, and abilities from the beginning stages to a professional level. If you are interested in any of our lessons, classes, programs, or using our facilities please contact us!

Red Shack Studio

Red Shack Studios in Payson offers private music lessons that help kids and teens discover the joy of playing an instrument. With supportive instructors and a fun, creative environment, students build skills, confidence, and a love for music. Fall enrollment is open now—contact us today to learn more and take advantage of special offers!
